4. Stresses the importance of the full involvement of all relevant stakeholders in the implementation of the Monterrey Consensus[2] at all levels, and also stresses the importance of their full participation in the financing for development follow-up process, in accordance with the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, in particular the accreditation procedures and modalities of participation utilized at the Monterrey and Doha Conferences;

5. Decides that the modalities for the sixth High-level Dialogue will be the same as those used for the fifth High-level Dialogue, as described in General Assembly resolution 65/314 of 12 September 2011;

6. Also decides that the sixth High-level Dialogue will consist of a series of plenary and informal meetings, three interactive multi-stakeholder round tables and an informal interactive dialogue;

7. Further decides that the themes of the round tables and of the informal interactive dialogue will be as follows:

(a) Round table 1: The impact of the world financial and economic crisis on the reform of the international monetary and financial system and its implications for development;

(b) Round table 2: Mobilization of public and private financing, including foreign direct investment and other private flows, and fostering international trade and sustainable debt financing, in the context of financing for development;

(c) Round table 3: The role of financial and technical development cooperation, including innovative sources of development finance, in leveraging the mobilization of domestic and international financial resources for sustainable development;

(d) Informal interactive dialogue: The link between financing for development and achieving the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals, and advancing the United Nations development agenda beyond 2015;

8. Decides that the sixth High-level Dialogue will result in a summary by the President of the General Assembly, which will be issued as a document of the Assembly.
